"The Blood is The Life."

Science has never gone beyond the above simple statement of scripture. But it has illuminated that statement and given it a meaning ever broadening with the increasing breadth of knowledge. When the blood is "bad" or impure it is not alone the body which suffers through disease. The brain is also affected, and many an evil deed or impure thought may be directly traced to the impurity of the blood. Pure, impure blood can be made pure by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures and purifies the blood, thereby curing, pimples, blotches, eruptions and other cutaneous affections, as eczema, tetter, or salt-rheum, hives and other manifestations of impure blood.

In the cure of scrofulous swellings, enlarged glands, open eating ulcers, or old sores, the "Golden Medical Discovery" has performed the most marvelous cures. In cases of old sores, or open eating ulcers, it is well to apply to the open sores Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve, which possesses wonderful healing potency when used as an application to the sores in conjunction with the use of "Golden Medical Discovery" as a blood cleansing constitutional treatment. If your druggist doesn't happen to have the "All-Healing Salve" in stock, you can easily procure it by enclosing fifty-four cents in postage stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post. Most druggists keep it as well as the "Golden Medical Discovery."

You can't afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery," which is a medicine of known composition, having a complete list of ingredients in plain English on its bottle-wrapper, the same being attested as correct under oath. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels.

REVOLUTIONARY HORRORS

The recent troubles in Barcelona were the most serious in 70 years. Conservatives estimate the killed numbered 200 to 300. The hospitals are filled with wounded, which include women and children. The Red Cross volunteers, who behaved heroically, were not respected by the anarchists, three being killed and 20 wounded. Some priests were murdered.

Aside from the losses caused by the fighting serious damage has been confined to monastic and conventual establishments, which have received an irreparable blow. Thirty-four establishments were totally destroyed and three destroyed in part. The scenes of destruction were terrible.

The embalmed bodies of nuns were torn from their niches in convents, paraded in the streets and mutilated in an unspeakable manner. Incredible stories are told of Jesuits, who defended their monastery, but were overpowered.

The Paris Figaro's staff correspondent at Barcelona reports that the rioters violated the sepulchres of nuns, but, generally speaking, did not harm living nuns. The monks, however, were chased from convents and monasteries, while the women in the crowds, who were especially enraged, cried:

"Away with you! No longer will you steal our needs and our embroidery; no longer will you prevent by your unfair competition our women from finding employment!"

This detail is important, as it shows that economic motives entered into the anti-clerical fury.

Some incidents of the rioting assumed the phases of gruesome butchery. In one convent, where there was a big stock of candles, the women and children lighted these and held a mock procession, and two mummified bodies of nuns arrayed in magnificent raiment were carried with mock pomp before the residence of a millionaire citizen.

While 40 blazing convents formed a colossal fire which sufficed to illuminate the city at night, the rioters indulged in furious attacks upon and pillaged convents and churches.

Seven thousand children have been made homeless by the destruction of religious institutions in Barcelona. The Museum of National History, one of the most beautiful buildings in Spain, and the Art School were destroyed.

Another incident of the street fighting was when one young revolutionist walked before the civil guard and discharged his revolver to the last ball, remaining until he fell, riddled with bullets. Many innocent persons walking on the roofs of the houses were shot down by the soldiers.

CONGRESSMAN ASSAULTED.

Representative J. Thomas Heflin, of Alabama, who figured in a shooting affray in Washington last March, when, in championing the cause of a young white woman, he ejected Louis Lumby, a negro, from a street car and later shot and wounded him when the negro resorted to violence, last night was the central figure in an exciting escapade in a barroom adjoining the Riggs House, in Washington.

Mr. Heflin, according to witnesses, was struck over the head with a cane, which was wrested from him by Richard Johnson, of the Severn Apartments, and but for the interference of Representative Ollie M. James, of Kentucky, a finish fight would have resulted. As it was, Mr. Heflin exchanged several blows, and he and his antagonist were separated and hurried to different sections of the building before more serious results ensued.

Mr. Johnson's demand that Mr. Heflin apologize for an alleged vituperative expression which he used toward him because an auto in which Mr. Johnson had been riding came near running him down. Upon the southerner's refusal Mr. Johnson snatched Representative Heflin's cane and threatened for several minutes the habitues of the cafe were treated to an exciting set-to.

Representative Heflin and Representative James were walking along F street, near Tenth, when an auto owned by John M. Dickson, who was at the steering wheel, and who was accompanied by Richard Johnson, came along at a good rate of speed. As the machine neared Tenth street the two congressmen stepped from the curb and, they say, were nearly run down by the auto. The machine grazed Mr. James' leg, he says, and would have killed him had it struck him full. Mr. Heflin was compelled, he says, to jump back to avoid being struck. Both statesmen are emphatic in their declaration that the auto was going at excessive speed.

COFFEE WILL BE HIGHER.

Owing to the maximum and minimum provision of the new tariff law, the "free breakfast table" will become a thing of the past, at least so far as coffee is concerned.

After March 31, when the maximum and minimum provision goes into effect, a duty of 25 cents per pound will be collected upon coffee from Brazil, which furnishes over four-fifths of the coffee consumed in the United States. Brazil, it is declared, is not in a position to meet the demands for revocation of their bounty system.

In discussing the matter yesterday, Representative Clayton of Alabama predicted an increase in the import price of coffee from 8 to 10 cents after next March.
